Sensory Salon

Head to the Sensory Salon, a new space in Design Centre East that stimulates all five senses as well as giving a revitalising perspective on life and art. Contemporary artist DD Regalo, represented by ArteMea Advisory, is well-versed in creating art that goes beyond a visual experience; meet him in person and see how his meditative piece has developed over the week.

Laura Pivetta
CEO and Creative Director
ArteMea Advisory
London, UK

Laura Pivetta started her company to help aspiring art collectors and art lovers connect with up-and-coming artists. Today, ArteMea has developed into a multi-faceted company that provides services ranging from single-art purchases to large-scale corporate projects with the aim to curate together with designers and stylists a bespoke personal space for clients.

Before ArteMea, Laura spent four years working in a prestigious art gallery in Mayfair. She was a curator and advisor for exclusive public venues in London; worked as a sales representative for high-end interior design brands and as an account manager for a luxury magazine.

Laura holds a BA in Languages, Literature and History of Art from the University of Venice.
